

YNYS MON (former Trecelyn Rural District).

LLANEILIAN, Henblas farmhouse + adjoining farmbuildings

51/31/12

Nat. Grid: 466923 Ref: 6/12 (sq. 12)

- II Outbuilding and SE part of house probably of one build. Older part of house possibly of C17 to C18 origin; later alterations; single storey structure at NW end. Remainder of 2 storeys; stone rubble walls with cladding to front wall. Late gabled roof, partially cemented, with common eaves line but with break in ridge line of house. Flanking stone stacks to house, with much larger stack to NW; front elevation to house with sash windows without glazing bars and with centre doorway. Front garden enclosed by wall of stone rubble. Large fireplace at NW end, partly blocked. Adjoining outbuildings comprising byre and granary left, to left hand; from NW or right to left hand, an external flight of stone stairs to left doors, doorway to byre; window to left; small window opening to byre. Small one-storey outbuilding at NW end, connected internally to house; gabled roof with large stack; doorway + window in front wall