Outstanding Conservation Area

- II Early C19 and perhaps earlier in part, but considerably modernised. Abol Old Barracks Cottage on the right and the Orchard on the left. Two storeys and modern attic. Pebble-dashed. Slate roof. Upper storeys has 2 windows, the left an original 3-light one with very small panes, the right modern. Below on the left a modern bay and to the right a one-storey forward dip, lean-to against Old Barracks Cottage. Of rubble, with 2 slate lintels and slate roof. Rear of house has been slightly heightened but the 2 upper windows are original sashes with glazing bars.
