

9 No. 4

Llech y Tribedd

Cromlech

1121

One of the most striking cromlechs in the county. It was figured by Sir R. Colt Hoar, and forms the frontispiece to Fenton's Historical Tour, 534. Fenton states this stone is "marked all over with initials of names for these two hundred years." The oldest we found is dated 1706.

OWNERSHIP AND TENANCY DETAILS

Mr. G. T. J. Davies

Treest

Newem

Newport

Pembis

(owners & occupiers)